Application and Selection Process

How to Apply
Please submit the 2 documents as set out below to human.resources@nsai.ie by close of business on 5pm 19th June 2020.

a) A comprehensive CV detailed as relevant to the position (no longer than 3 pages);

b) A short cover letter/ personal statement (i.e. no more than 2 pages) outlining why you wish to be considered for the post and where you believe your skills and experience meet the requirements for the position.

We request that all two documents are submitted in a single word document or PDF where possible.

Please note that omission of any or part of the 2 requested documents, as set out above, will render the application incomplete. Incomplete applications will not be considered for the next stage of the selection process.

Requests for Reasonable Accommodations
NSAI, in line with the Employment Equality Acts 1998-2015, will ensure that it does all that is reasonable to accommodate the needs of a person who has a disability and will ensure that its services are accessible across the range of disabilities.

If you require reasonable accommodations made, please indicate this during the application process by emailing human.resources@nsai.ie or by writing to the following address: HR Department, NSAI, 1 Swift Square, Northwood, Santry, Dublin 9 D09 AOE4. Any requests for reasonable accommodation need to be accompanied by a medical/psychologist’s report, the purpose of which is to provide NSAI with information necessary to make the decision on reasonable accommodation as promptly as possible. NSAI will consider each request on a case by case basis. All information provided will be treated as strictly confidential.

Requests for Documentation/Information in an Alternative Format
All documents/information related to the application process is available in an alternative format. You can make a request for documents/information in an alternative format by emailing human.resources@nsai.ie or in writing to the following address: HR Department, NSAI, 4th Floor, 1 Swift Square, Northwood, Santry, Dublin 9 D09 AOE4.

Please provide the following details when making a request:
- Name, address, contact details
- Details of document/information being requested
- The information format sought

All requests will be acknowledged within 3 working days of receipt and will be dealt with within 10 working days. Where a delay in providing the requested information occurs, NSAI will confirm the new date the person can expect to receive the information. If NSAI is unable to provide the requested information, the reason will be explained fully in writing to the person making the request.

Closing Date
The closing date and time for applications is 5pm 19th June 2020. Applications received after the specified deadline will not be accepted.
If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within 2 working days of applying, please email human.resources@nsai.ie

Selection Methods
NSAI will convene an expert board to carry out the competitive stages of the selection process to the highest standards of best practice. The approach employed may include:

- Shortlisting of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- A competitive, competency focussed, interview;
- A second-round interview (if applicable);
- Presentation/Work sample/role play/media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate; and
- Reference and online checks.

Shortlisting
Based on the number of applications received, the NSAI may in the first instance conduct a shortlisting exercise.

During any short-listing exercise that may be employed, NSAI is guided by an interview board who examine the applications and assess them against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/experience on your application.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position NSAI will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

Interviews
The onus is on each applicant to ensure that she/he is in receipt of all communications from NSAI. Candidates should make themselves available on the date(s) specified by NSAI and should make sure that their contact details specified on their application are correct. NSAI will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates for attendance at interview. A panel may be formed for this competition as part of the recruitment process.

Candidates’ Rights—Review Procedures in relation to the Selection Process
NSAI will consider requests for review in accordance with its Recruitment & Selection Policy.

References
NSAI would appreciate it if you would start considering names of people who you feel would be suitable referees (1 - 2 names and contact details). The referees listed do not have to include your current employer but should be in a position to provide a work reference for you. Please be assured that NSAI will only collect the details and contact your referees should you come under consideration at interview stage.

The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend interview, or a successful result letter, is not to be taken as implying that NSAI is satisfied that such a person fulfils the requirements or is not disqualified by law from holding the position.

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it, NSAI may at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment from the panel on the results of this selection process.
Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other selection processes when and where required by NSAI, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as NSAI require in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Tenure
The appointment will be on a full-time basis. The appointee must serve a probationary period, which lasts for 12 months. Should the appointee’s service be satisfactory with regards to health, conduct, and efficiency generally during the probationary period, the appointee, on completion of the period will be finally appointed. Should the appointee’s services be unsatisfactory, the appointment may be terminated at any time during the period.

Location
This position is currently based at 1 Swift Square, Northwood, Santry, Dublin 9.

Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest
Employees are prohibited from having any personal or financial interest in any industry that NSAI certifies from the date of appointment with the NSAI. Employees are prohibited from disclosing any information in relation to the business of any person obtained in his/her capacity as an officer of the NSAI.

Superannuation and Retirement
The appointee will be offered public service pension terms and retirement age conditions in accordance with pension arrangements in NSAI depending on the status of the successful appointee:
a) In general, an individual who has no prior pensionable Public Service history in the 26 weeks prior to appointment will be a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (Single Scheme) which commenced from 1 January 2013 [Section 10 of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 refers];
b) An individual who was a member of a “pre-existing public service pension scheme” as construed by the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 and who does not qualify for membership of the Single Scheme will have standard public service pension terms reflecting new entrant or non-new entrant status for the purposes of the Public Service Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004.

Appointee’s status for superannuation purposes
Appointees will be required to disclose their full public service history. Details of the appropriate superannuation provisions will be provided upon determination of appointee’s status. The following points should be noted:

Pension Accrual
A 40-year limit on total service that can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one existing public service pension scheme will apply. This 40-year limit, which is provided for in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012 came into effect on 28 July 2012. This may have implications for any appointee who has acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment.

Pension Abatement
The Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 extended pension abatement so that a retiree’s public service pension is liable to abatement on re-entering public service employment, even where the new employment is in a different area of the public service. However, if the appointee was previously employed in the Civil Service and awarded a pension under voluntary early retirement arrangements (other than the Incentivised Scheme of Early Retirement (ISER) or the Health Service Executive VER/VRS which render a person ineligible for the competition) the entitlement to payment of that pension will cease with effect from the date of reappointment.

Ill-Health Retirement
Please note that where an individual has retired from a Civil/Public Service body on the grounds of ill-health his/her pension from that employment may be subject to review in accordance with the rules of ill-health retirement within the pension scheme of that employment.

Additional Superannuation Contributions (ASC)
This appointment is subject to the ASC deduction as provided for under Part 4 of the Public Service Pay and Pensions Act 2017.
For further information in relation to public service superannuation issues please see the following website: http://per.gov.ie/pensions
